

ST PETER'S COLLEGE CHAPEL

Cross & Pelican at the top of the Reredos in the Chapel

The belief that pelicans feed their young with their own blood is a myth rooted in symbolism, particularly within Christian tradition, representing self-sacrifice and nurturing love.

He is often to be found either in the Chapel or his office (Besse 5). For students who would like to speak to a university chaplain for a different denomination or faith, Matthew can provide the relevant contact details.

Matthew is keen to know if there are other styles of occasional worship or informal faith related study groups that would be of interest to members of College. He can be contacted via matthew.routledge@spc.ox.ac.uk
