

ST PETER'S COLLEGE

UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR VENUE HIRE (INTRA-OXFORD)

THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS APPLY TO BOOKINGS MADE BETWEEN THE UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD, THE COLLEGES OF THE UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD AND RELATED ENTITIES. THEY ARE NOT INTENDED FOR BOOKINGS WITH EXTERNAL CUSTOMERS.

These Terms and Conditions, together with the Proposal (the “Proposal”) issued by the operator of the Venue named in the Proposal (“we” or “us”) comprise a legally binding agreement between us and the person identified as the Hirer in the Proposal (“you”) (the “Agreement”).

The Agreement governs the hire to you of the Venue for the purposes of the Event, together with the provision of any associated catering services, accommodation or other additional services which we have agreed to provide. The Proposal sets out details of any associated services that we have agreed to provide. Please note that catering services may be provided under a separate contract between you and the relevant caterer, to which we are not a party and for which we are not responsible.

The Agreement may be formed before the Proposal is complete (for example, if you have yet to determine certain details of the Event or to provide certain information). The parties may update the Proposal or associated documents such as menus or accommodation requirements from time to time by written agreement, including in e-mail correspondence and references to the Proposal are to the most recently-agreed iteration of the Proposal (together with any associated documents).

1. Interpretation

1.1 Capitalised terms in these Terms and Conditions have the meanings given in the Proposal if no other meaning is given below. Otherwise:

“Accredited Supplier” means a supplier of goods or services (such as floristry, lighting, staging, AV equipment or entertainment) on our list of approved suppliers;

“Fees” means those fees payable to us identified in the Proposal, together with any other fees, costs or charges payable to us in accordance with these Terms and Conditions; and “Premises” means our premises, including the Venue(s) and any accommodation or ancillary areas which we may permit you to use.

1.2 Unless the context otherwise requires: i) the singular includes the plural and vice versa; ii) words following the terms “including”, “include”, “in particular” or similar are illustrative rather than exhaustive; and iii) reference to a statute or statutory provision is a reference to it as amended from time to time.

1.3 In the event of any conflict between any Special Terms set out in the Proposal and the provisions of these Terms and Conditions, the Special Terms shall prevail.

2. Payment

- 2.1 In consideration of the payment by you of the Fees, and compliance by you with the obligations set out in this Agreement, we will make the Venue available to you for the Hire Period, for the purposes of the Event (subject to our rights of substitution under clause 6.9) and provide any agreed catering, accommodation or other additional services to you.
- 2.2 The Agreement is formed upon signature of the Proposal by both parties, following which we will issue an invoice for the Deposit (if any) in accordance with the Proposal. Except in the circumstances described in clause 11.4, the Deposit is non-refundable.
- 2.3 All sums are stated exclusive of VAT, which will be payable in addition where applicable.

3. Co-ordination

- 3.1 The person named as your contact in the Proposal is responsible for co-ordinating all necessary arrangements relating to the Event with our Event Manager. During the Hire Period our Representatives shall both remain at the Venue and liaise in relation to the conduct of the Event. Your Representative must remain present at the Venue during the Event and available at all reasonable times during the Hire Period.
- 3.2 We are entitled to be present at the Venues at all times. If requested, you will provide a representative to accompany our Representatives in order to identify Guests and other Visitors.
- 3.3 At least ten (10) working days prior to the Event, you will provide to us:
- (a) a full list of Visitors, including details of any high-profile Guest(s) who may require additional security protection which you propose to arrange, or any special accommodation requirements; and
 - (b) a final draft of the Event programme.
- 3.4 We will not unreasonably refuse a request from you to increase or decrease the number of Guests from the number specified in the Proposal, provided that:
- (a) the request is made with reasonable notice; and
 - (b) no return of the Deposit will be made in relation to decreased numbers (although we will reduce the overall Fees, subject to any minimum number of Guests in the Proposal).
- 3.5 If we are providing catering services to you, you will ensure that all dietary requirements or allergen information of any Visitors have been communicated to us accurately and in good time prior to the Event, and within such timings as we may agree together. If you have not done so, it will be your responsibility to ensure that any special dietary requirements are met and you have obtained the express consent of each Visitor to the disclosure to us of their dietary requirements. We do not guarantee that we will be able to accommodate all dietary requirements.
- 3.6 We may refuse access to the Premises any person who has not been identified to us in advance as a Visitor.
- 3.7 If any members of the press, TV or other media organisations are expected to attend the Event, you must inform us at least five (5) working days prior to the Event.

4. Our Responsibilities

4.1 We will:

- (a) make the Venue available to you on an exclusive basis during the Hire Period, unless otherwise agreed in writing;

We may require you to implement, and/or to pay the cost of, any special precautions we require to address such risk. In particular, if any aspect of the Event may involve any fire risk you must seek written approval from us at least thirty (30) days in advance of the Hire Period. We may also ask that you complete a risk assessment in relation to any speakers at the Event in connection with our Prevent duties under the Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015.

- 6.9 If for any reason the Venue or any part of the Venue becomes, or is likely to become, unavailable, we may without liability to you substitute alternative function space within the Premises of a similar standard to the Venue for the Event. We will notify you as early as possible of any such substitution.

Each party shall ensure it has public liability insurance cover with a reputable insurer to a level of cover of at least £5,000,000 per occurrence.

8. Removal and Restoration

- 8.3 We accept no responsibility for any items or articles brought to the Premises by any Visitor or for any item or articles left at the Premises following the conclusion of the Event.

9. Suppliers, Equipment, Catering and Entertainment

- 9.1 Unless otherwise agreed with us, you may only use Accredited Suppliers for the provision of services in connection with the Event.  - (c) neither party shall be liable for:
 - i) indirect or consequential damages or losses (including losses suffered by you or any Visitor arising from termination of the Agreement);
 - ii) any loss of profits, loss of revenue, loss of data, loss of goodwill, loss of contracts or loss of opportunity (in each case whether direct or indirect) which arise out of or in connection with the Agreement (but without limiting your payment obligations); or
 - iii) any non-performance or delay in performance of its obligations under the Agreement which is attributable to the other party's acts or omissions or those of a third party outside of its control.
- 10.2 We shall not be liable to you for loss of or damage to any property owned or hired by you or any Visitor, except to the extent caused by our negligence.
- 10.3 Nothing in the Agreement excludes or limits either party's liability for any matter for which liability cannot lawfully be limited or excluded, including death or personal injury caused by negligence.

11. Cancellation and Termination

11.1 Specific cancellation provisions may apply in the event of a pandemic and are set out in clause 12 below. Otherwise, the provisions of this clause 11 alone will apply to cancellation or termination by either you or us.

11.2 You may cancel the Agreement by written notice to us. In the event of cancellation, you shall pay a cancellation fee of:

- (a) 0% of the Fees if the cancellation occurs 90 days or more before the planned date of the Event (the Event Date);
- (b) 25% of the Fees if the cancellation occurs between 60 and 89 days before the Event Date;
- (c) 50% of the Fees if the cancellation occurs between 30 and 59 days before the Event Date; or
- (d) 100% of the Fees if the cancellation occurs less than 30 days before the Event Date, provided in each case that we will reduce the cancellation fee by: i) any Deposit already paid by you; and ii) any costs saved by us if and to the extent we mitigate our losses by successfully re-booking the space and/or cancelling resources which would have been used to provide the cancelled Event (which we will endeavour to do).

11.3 Either party may terminate the Agreement by written notice to the other, (and in our case, we shall have the right to retain the Deposit), if the other party:

- (a) commits a material breach of the Agreement and (in the case of a material breach which is capable of remedy) fails to remedy that breach within a reasonable period of time; or
- (b) becomes insolvent or bankrupt, is wound up or subject to an order for winding up, is the subject of an administration, or enters into any voluntary arrangement with creditors, or is subject to any equivalent event or proceedings.

11.4 We may terminate the Agreement by written notice to you, and shall return the Deposit to you, if:

- (a) we are, or reasonably believe we will be, unable to perform the Agreement for reasons outside our control; or
- (b) we otherwise require any material changes in the arrangement of the Event which are not acceptable to you (other than any substitutions we may make under clause 6.9).

11.5 Termination of the Agreement, for whatever reason, shall not limit any rights or remedies of the parties which accrued prior to termination.

12. Pandemics

12.1 Both you and we agree to comply with any official guidance from UK Government in relation to any pandemic (including COVID-19), and to notify the other promptly of any impact such pandemic may have on the performance of our respective obligations under the Agreement.

- 12.2 You agree to comply with, and procure that all Guests and Visitors comply with, any measures which we may communicate to you in to ensure their safety and the safety of our staff. - (a) imposing maximum numbers at the event;
 - (b) limiting food or drink availability, or changing the means by which either are served;
 - (c) imposing specific requirements regarding personal protective equipment such as the wearing of masks, or specific safety measures such as the use of sanitiser or distancing procedures; or
 - (d) limiting any planned entertainment for your Event.
- 12.3 We may acting reasonably revise the Fees to reflect any measures taken (for example if buffet service is replaced by table service) and will notify you as early as is reasonably practicable of any such revisions.
- 12.4 If we are obliged to close the Venue or Premises due to Government restrictions, or if we decide to close them due to our own safety concerns, we will seek to agree with you an alternative date for the Event. If that cannot be agreed your booking will be cancelled and your Deposit will be returned. We will have no liability to you in connection with any such changes in date or cancellation.
- 12.5 You must notify us if the number of individuals attending the Event will be reduced due to infection or travel restrictions associated with a pandemic. If you provide us with at least fourteen (14) days' notice prior to the Event of any reduction we will offer a proportionate reduction in any element of the Fees based on attendance numbers (to a maximum of 30% of that element) or, if you prefer to defer the Event, seek to agree an alternative date with you. If we cannot agree an alternative date with you, or if you do not wish to proceed with the Event subject to a reduction in the Fees, then you will be deemed to have cancelled under clause 11.2 and a cancellation fee will apply.
- 12.6 If you choose not to proceed with the Event for other reasons connected with a pandemic (such as regional lockdowns not affecting Oxfordshire or not wishing to hold the Event whilst physical distancing measures are in force) you must provide us with notice of cancellation, stating your reasons, at least fourteen (14) days prior to the Event. We will seek to agree an alternative date for the Event with you, but if that cannot be agreed then you will be deemed to have cancelled under clause 11.2 and a cancellation fee will apply.
