St Peter’s College: Sexual Violence Response Information

If there is an immediate danger ring 999 for police. If urgent medical attention is required dial 999 for ambulance.

Immediate Action
- Call Porter’s lodge on 01865 278900 to ask for assistance or to be put through to welfare officer
- If you think it’s possible that you may take legal action, maintain forensic evidence – don’t wash yourself or your clothes
- Emergency contraception, STI tests, and HIV prophylaxis at Churchill Hospital – 01865 231231

Your Options:

SARC: Sexual Assault Referral Centre
- For immediate or longer-term 24/7 support and specialist advice from an independent evidence collection and support centre, ring 0800 970 9952
- You can attend SARC without making a report to the Police, but you must make an appointment – 01869 369869 (Mon-Fri 9-5)
- Lodge will arrange a free taxi for you and a welfare officer can come with you: Solace Centre, Police House, Queens Avenue, Bicester, OX26 2NT

Reporting via the Police
- To report an incident either:
  - Call 101
  - Report in person at St Aldates Police Station or via SARC
- Will be referred to a Sexual Offences Liaison Officer
- Can provide immediate support, collect evidence, start legal proceedings and refer to SARC
- The police have the services and expertise to deal with these reports. However, you can access support from College, University and other services whether or not you choose to report an incident

Oxford Uni Support Service + Independent Sexual Violence Advisors (ISVA)
- For independent and confidential advice on options available and ongoing support for both recent and historic incidents
- Available office hours or by appointment - supportservice@admin.ox.ac.uk
- You can access an ISVA who can provide ongoing support and help you understand and decide about reporting options OxfordUniISVA@osarc.org.uk

College Services
- You can speak to the Dean for Welfare, Welfare Officers or Harassment Advisors to discuss options
- You can access an ISVA who can provide ongoing support and help you understand and decide about reporting options OxfordUniISVA@osarc.org.uk

College Reporting
- Reports made to Dean will be investigated and dealt with through the SPC harassment policy if the perpetrator is a member of SPC

Do Nothing
- If you choose take no action, you can still access support (supportservice@admin.ox.ac.uk)
- If you change your mind, you can still report later on

Accused Students – can access support separately from: caseadvice@admin.ox.ac.uk