Peer Supporters:

St Peter’s has a number of Peer Supporters. These are students who have undertaken training in listening and supporting their peers. For information about current Peer Supporters, see the JCR / MCR Facebook pages, or the welfare information page of the college website.

Peer Supporters meet regularly with other members of the St Peter’s Welfare Team and are supervised through the Counselling Service.

St Peter’s is linked with Regent’s Park College for students who would prefer to seek external Peer Support. See the College website for details.

St Peter’s Welfare

Dean for Welfare
St Peter’s welfare team is led by the Dean for Welfare, Eleanor Tingle. Eleanor co-ordinates and leads all welfare provision and is a qualified music psychotherapist. She is also the college Gender, Sexuality and Orientations (LGBTQ+) lead.

You may contact Eleanor directly with any concerns you may have, however large or small. Eleanor can usually offer same or next day appointments. Please email or drop in at anytime.

Tutor for Welfare
The Tutor for Welfare is Dr Claire Williams. Claire links the Welfare team with the Governing Body and oversees strategic aspects of welfare provision.

Welfare Officers
The Dean for Welfare works closely with two Welfare Officers, Ed Scrivens and Emmanuelle Dankwa. Ed and Emmanuelle are DPhil students who live onsite. Both have undertaken extensive training and were appointed to St Peter’s through a rigorous selection procedure. They are available to provide support during drop in hours and to assist with urgent situations out of hours when they can be contacted through the Porters’ Lodge.
